
Securities Trading Policy

Retail Zoo Holdings Limited (ACN 169 039 721)

1 Purpose

- (a) The Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Corporations Act) prohibits the trading in shares, options, debentures (including convertible notes) and other securities (securities) of a company by any person who is in possession of price sensitive information regarding that company that is not generally available. The Corporations Act:
 - (i) imposes substantial penalties on persons who breach those provisions; and
 - (ii) applies to the extent of any inconsistency between it and this policy.
- (b) This policy regulates dealings by directors and certain officers of Retail Zoo Holdings Limited (ACN 169 039 721) (Retail Zoo or the Company) and other designated persons, in securities in Retail Zoo about which they acquire Inside Information through their position or dealings with Retail Zoo.
- (c) This policy is not designed to prohibit Retail Zoo Persons from investing in Retail Zoo securities, but does recognise that there may be times when directors, officers or certain employees cannot or should not invest in Retail Zoo securities.

- (a) No Retail Zoo Person may, while in possession of Inside Information concerning Retail Zoo, in breach of the Corporations Act:
 - (i) buy or sell any Retail Zoo securities at any time;

- (c) The requirements imposed by this policy are in addition to any legal prohibitions on insider trading. Trading in Retail Zoo securities is prohibited at any time by a director or a Retail Zoo Person if that person possesses Inside Information.

3.2 Inside Information

A Retail Zoo Person is responsible for assessing whether they possess “Inside Information”. This occurs where:

- (a) the person possesses information that is not generally available to the public and, if the information were generally available, a reasonable person would expect it to have a material effect on the price or value of Retail Zoo's securities (or a decision whether or not to trade in them); and
- (b) the person knows, or ought reasonably to know, that the information is not generally available and, if it were generally available, a reasonable person would expect it to have a material effect on the price or value of Retail Zoo's securities.

A reasonable person would be taken to expect information to have a material effect on the price or value of securities if the information would, or would be likely to, influence a person who commonly invests in securities to either deal or not deal in securities in any way. Inside Information in relation to the securities of outside companies has the same meaning for the purposes of this policy, except that references to “Retail Zoo’s securities” should be read as references to the securities of the outside company.
